

Change of Status from Inactive to Active:

This application must be submitted by the individual that wants to become active again.

You will need to submit proof of current E&O insurance.

If you renewed inactive at your last renewal and this is your first request to become active, you will need to provide proof of the required continuing education course completion certificates. Or, if you took the exam in lieu of continuing education you will need to provide copies of the pass notices.

You will need to know the license number of the firm or broker sole-proprietor that you wish to be assigned to.
