

Tradenames can only be licensed to a firm or a licensed broker sole-proprietor. A tradename is a DBA or a fictitious name that allows the firm or the broker sole-proprietor to advertise. Since a tradename is a NAME only, no one is assigned to a tradename.

License fee is $50.

The license will have the same expiration year as the firm or the broker sole-proprietor that it is assigned to.