Administrative Reports

David Ranscht, Assistant Attorney General, announced that he is filling in for former AAG Rebecca Barloon for this meeting.

SchraderBachar reported she and Reyhons attended the Administrative Rules Review Committee on July 10, 2018 to answer questions regarding the notice of intended action to 193G Iowa Administrative Code Chapters 2 & 3. Questions they answered regarded continuing education requirements and paths to registration. A public hearing about the rules was also held on July 10th. It was attended by Robert Bird, who is new on staff with the Senate Republican Caucus Staff and was given an overview of PLB by SchraderBachar. Audits will be conducted starting in September of all licensees who renewed. The list of lapsed registrants is online. The CIDQ newsletter gave the Spring 2018 NCIDQ pass rates, which are:

69% IDFX
59% IDPX
65% Practicum

There were 628 new certificates and 3,568 exam registrations from the spring exam.

Lindgren reported one newly registered interior designer and no reinstatements from May 14 through August 6, 2018. Thirty eight interior designers successfully renewed and 4 have lapsed for a total of 72 active registered interior designers.
