---	---

On Friday, January 27, 2023, the Emergency Petition for Appointment of Receiver and Other Equitable Remedies came before the Court. Upon reviewing the arguments raised in the Petition and exhibits attached thereto, the Court hereby GRANTS the Emergency Petition for Appointment of a Receiver, stating in support thereof:

- A. The Court finds Respondent Blue Care Opco Winterset – West, d/b/a Madison Square Assisted Living (“QHC Madison Square”) is an assisted living program certified by the State of Iowa pursuant to Iowa Code chapter 231C.
- B. The Court finds an emergency exists which presents an imminent danger to the tenants of QHC Madison Square and appointment of a receiver is necessary to protect the health and safety of the tenants.
- C. The Court finds that QHC Madison Square does not object to the appointment of a receiver.

- D. Accordingly, the Court hereby appoints Michael F. Flanagan as Receiver to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of the receiver for QHC Madison Square. Within three (3) business days following entry of this Order, Receiver shall file his Oath as Receiver. No bond shall be required to be posted in connection with the appointment of the Receiver.
- E. The Receiver shall be authorized to expend operating revenue and interest from QHC Madison Square's accounts in the ordinary course of business, in addition to any other funds obtained and utilized for relief in instances of receivership, subject to periodic reporting as this Court may require.
- F. Those funds may be used for any proper purpose, expressly including the following:
- a. Providing a reasonable fee in the amount of $30,000 to be paid to Michael F. Flanagan and Mission Management Services, LLC ("Mission"), plus reimbursement of reasonable and necessary out of pocket expenses incurred in operating and closing QHC Madison Square in fulfillment of the duties of receiver;
  - b. Payment of expenses incurred for the continuing care of the tenants of QHC Madison Square throughout the closure process;
  - c. Payment of expenses incurred for any required maintenance of buildings and grounds of QHC Madison Square; and
  - d. Payment of expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business, including employee salaries, critical vendors, and accounts payable.
- G. The Receiver shall keep a detailed accounting of all expenses incurred and paid, in addition to the source of each payment.
- H. The Receiver shall be authorized to determine the timing and amount of payment of all receivership expenses and consolidate, modify, or close accounts as necessary.

- I. QHC Madison Square will be responsible for all expenses of this receivership.
- J. Respondents shall take any and all action necessary to immediately provide the receiver full and complete access to QHC Madison Square, its records, and all financial accounts and resources, including, without limitation:
  1. all bank accounts, including providing online or other necessary access to such accounts;
  2. tax ID number for QHC Madison Square;
  3. information regarding tenant payments and all other income of QHC Madison Square which may be provided through access to Point Click Care;
  4. a list of the security deposits, security deposit accounts, and an accounting for all security deposits currently held by QHC Madison Square;
  5. tax escrow deposits;
  6. keys, fobs, swipe cards, and other items or information necessary to have full access to QHC Madison Square;
  7. books, records, checkbooks (to the extent they exist), ledgers, accounts payable and accounts receivable records, all of which may be provided through access to Point Click Care;
  8. tenant agreements;
  9. information regarding tenant payments and balances, which may be provided through access to Point Click Care;
  10. tenant contact information;
  11. tenant lists or ledgers, which may be provided through access to Point Click Care;

12. a current aged account receivable/delinquency report, which may be provided through access to Point Click Care;
13. an aged listing of all trade payables and other payables, which may be provided through access to Point Click Care;
14. a list of all pending litigation (excluding this action);
15. documents pertaining to all pending new tenant agreements;
16. current insurance policies and certificates, including the terms of all insurance policies;
17. primary vendor list;
18. pending bids for contractor work;
19. on-site active employee payroll records and employee files and applications;
20. documents, books, records and computer files, and all other records necessary for the operation, and management of QHC Madison Square, which may be established through a new email or an administrator access account for the Receiver;
21. lists of existing utilities providers and utilities accounts;
22. petty cash funds, if any;
23. year-end 2022 operating statements and year-to-date 2023 operating statements;
24. computer equipment located at the Property, non-proprietary software, management files, and accounts needed to access said computer equipment and software maintained at the Properties or the management office(s) including the office located at each Property, if any;

25. current operating budgets for each Property; and
  26. such other records pertaining to the management or operation of QHC Madison Square as may be reasonably requested by the Receiver, including, without limitation, any other financial information reasonably requested by Receiver.
- K. In order to allow the Receiver full and complete access to any and all electronic records, systems, and information related to QHC Madison Square and necessary for the operation of QHC Madison Square, within two (2) business days of the entry of this Order, Respondents and/or their respective agents shall create administrator level accounts for Mission to electronic systems (whether for phones, databases, software systems, payroll records, tenant records or otherwise), to the extent necessary for the maintenance of QHC Madison Square, the continued operation of QHC Madison Square, and the ongoing delivery of tenant care.
- L. Respondents shall be enjoined from exercising control over the program or any of QHC Madison Square's financial resources after entry of this Order and the orderly transfer of access to the Receiver.
- M. This Order shall not impose upon the Receiver any liability to any party for any claims, actions, or causes of action relating to QHC Madison Square that arise out of or relate to events or circumstances occurring prior to the appointment of the Receiver (including but not limited to any liability resulting from the performance of services rendered by third parties on behalf of Respondents, and any liability to which Respondents are currently or may ultimately be exposed under any applicable laws pertaining to the ownership, management, and operations of QHC Madison Square). The Receiver, Mission and the Receiver's and Mission's employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, officers, directors, partners, shareholders, members, affiliates, successors or assigns (the "Receiver-Related Persons") shall have no personal liability related to the Property and they shall have no claim asserted against them, except for claims due to any gross negligence, fraud, bad faith, misuse of funds, willful misconduct, violations of federal, state or local law, or their breach of the terms and provisions of this Order. No party may commence litigation or discovery in any form against the Receiver-Related Persons without first receiving approval of this Court, after notice and a hearing.

- N. The Receiver shall not be responsible for the preparation and filing of any tax returns for Respondents, including income, personal property, commercial activity, gross receipts, sales and use, or other tax returns.
- O. The Court shall retain jurisdiction in the event additional grounds for relief or additional remedies become necessary.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
